

Water pump note:

The water pump switch has been fitted with a loud buzzer noise to remind you to switch it off before you drive anywhere. This is to prevent the pump from over filling the bath rinse tank during transit.

To stop the buzzing noise, simply switch off the water pump switch which is located just above the table in all of our conversion.